

securityservices

Our Approach

Exactitude's consultants have a broad and deep base of knowledge combined with a range of specialized skills. However, what sets Exactitude apart is our ability to communicate with our customers, analyse their needs and to understand their restrictions, flexibility, realities and vision. In essence, to identify what will assist our clients achieve greater efficiencies and customize solutions accordingly.

Our Services

Our SAP R/3 Security team provides customized solutions to meet the requirements of all aspects of the production lifecycle – from design to implementation, through to production support.

Our SAP R/3 Security services cover:

- Security reviews
- Security audits
- Authorizations Scoping
- Design and implementation of corporate IT security policies
- Design and implementation of all aspects of security and authorizations for new SAP installs and version upgrades
- Security modifications to activity groups, profiles, object classes and authorizations to support business process changes
- Setting up the Profile Generator for new implementations or upgrades

Business Benefit

Protection of your company's data assets and programs in a manner that provides maximum security in accordance with corporate IT policies, consistent security standards, easy user maintenance and appropriate privileges for end users to perform their assigned roles in the business.